

Orlando Wounded Warrior/Lone Sailor 5K

I am very proud to announce the Central Florida Navy League's, 2nd annual Wounded Warrior Lone Sailor 5K. This year's event will be held in beautiful Blue Jacket Park in Orlando, on March 19th, 2011 - and I would like to personally extend an invitation for you to participate (run/walk/or roll!) in this year's 5K and would like to respectfully request addition on the West Florida Y'Runners' event calendar.

Last year's charity run proved to be a very special, truly patriotic, and highly successful event. We had over 650 participants and generated in excess of $13,000 for the Wounded Warrior Project - a significant accomplishment for a first year event! This year's event is shaping up to be as inspirational as the first! Please visit our 2011 website @ www.orlandowoundedwarrior5k.com <<http://www.orlandowoundedwarrior5k.com/>> for all event details. You can quickly register for the 5K using our new online registration tool right on the site.

The site also includes the 2011 WWLS 5K event flyer and corporate sponsorship package - please download these and forward to any friends, family, or colleagues who may be interested in participating or supporting this extremely worthwhile and rewarding experience. We need your help to get the word out to surpass last year's tremendous results!

I am hoping for a large turnout and a great morning of family fun for an incredible cause! Please come out and support those who have sacrificed so much for our great country and the freedoms that we enjoy!

We are looking forward hopefully seeing you on March 19th at Blue Jacket Park!

Warm regards,

Jeff Grubb,

Central Florida Navy League
